1. Purpose

This policy sets out how [Company Name] collects, uses, discloses, and protects personal data in accordance with the Personal Data Protection Act 2012 (PDPA) of Singapore and its amendments.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all employees, contractors, and agents of [Company Name] who handle personal data in the course of their work.

3. Definition of Personal Data

Personal data means data, whether true or not, about an individual who can be identified from that data alone, or from that data and other information to which the organisation has or is likely to have access. This includes but is not limited to: names, NRIC/passport numbers, contact details, photographs, financial information, and employment records.

4. Our Commitment

[Company Name] is committed to: (a) collecting only personal data that is necessary for legitimate business purposes; (b) notifying individuals of the purposes for which their data is collected; (c) obtaining consent before or at the time of collection; (d) protecting personal data with appropriate security measures; (e) retaining personal data only for as long as necessary; and (f) allowing individuals to access and correct their personal data on request.

5. Data Protection Officer (DPO)

[Company Name] has appointed a Data Protection Officer responsible for overseeing compliance with this policy and the PDPA. The DPO can be contacted at [DPO Email].

6. Collection of Personal Data

We collect personal data through: (a) forms completed by individuals (physical or digital); (b) correspondence by email, phone, or in person; (c) our website and digital platforms; (d) third parties with appropriate authority to share such data. We will inform individuals of the purposes for which we collect their data at the time of collection.

7. Use and Disclosure

Personal data will only be used or disclosed for the purpose for which it was collected, or a directly related purpose, or with the individual's consent. We will not sell personal data to third parties. We may disclose personal data to service providers who assist us in our operations, subject to data processing agreements.

8. Retention and Disposal

We retain personal data only for as long as necessary to fulfil the purpose for which it was collected, or as required by law. When personal data is no longer required, it will be securely disposed of or anonymised.

9. Data Security

We implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect personal data against unauthorised access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction. These measures are reviewed periodically.

10. Access and Correction

Individuals may request access to or correction of their personal data held by us. Requests should be submitted in writing to the DPO. We will respond within 30 days. We may charge a reasonable fee for access requests.

11. Data Breach

In the event of a data breach that is likely to result in significant harm to individuals, we will notify the PDPC and affected individuals as required under the PDPA. We maintain a breach response plan and a breach register.

12. Policy Updates

This policy is reviewed annually or when there are significant changes to our data processing activities or to the PDPA. The latest version will be made available to staff and, where relevant, to the public.
